

Thunder Bay Christian Homeschoolers Liability Waiver

Thunder Bay Christian Homeschoolers (TBCH) is not a registered organization. It is a collaborative group of families. TBCH has no physical location. Activities can be held at any location chosen by participants. Fees collected are to subsidize activities and events, not for profit.

Participation involves risks such as but not limited to injury, illness, or property damage. TBCH does not provide insurance; each family is responsible for their own. If TBCH provides insurance for any specific event, it will be clearly stated in advance and will be considered additional protection with families still taking primary responsibility for their own insurance coverage.

At least one parent/guardian must stay with, actively supervise their child(ren) at all TBCH activities and take full responsibility for their safety and behaviour. TBCH participants who organize or run activities do not assume any responsibility for the safety of other people's children.

Participants agree to review and respect the TBCH Statement of Faith at tbch.ca and will not discuss anything contrary to it at activities.

Release and Waiver: By participating, you release, waive, and agree not to sue TBCH, its organizers, volunteers, or participants for any claims related to loss, damage, injury, or any other harm. This applies to you and anyone who might sue on your behalf.

This Waiver is governed by Ontario law. If any part is found invalid, the rest remains in effect.

Acknowledgment: By signing, you acknowledge understanding and agreeing to the Waiver's terms, including giving up the right to sue.

This Waiver must be submitted with the registration form and applies to all participants listed on registration. Adult children may be included with their family on this waiver by adding their own signature in addition to the parent's.
